Who Am I? by Charles "Rusty" Goodman

When I think of how He came so far from glory
Came to dwell among the lowly such as I
To suffer shame and such disgrace
On Mount Calvary take my place
Then I ask myself this question, "Who am I?"

Who am I that a King would bleed and die for?
Who am I that He would pray not my will, Thine Lord?
The answer I may never know, why He ever loved me so
But to an old rugged cross He'd go for who am I?

When I'm reminded of His word, I'll leave thee never
If you'll be true I'll give to you life forever
I wonder what I could have done to deserve God's only Son
To fight my battles until they're won for who am I?

Who am I that a King would bleed and die for?
Who am I that He would pray not my will, Thine Lord?
The answer I may never know, why He ever loved me so
But to an old rugged cross He'd go for who am I?
But to an old rugged cross He'd go for who am I?
